1. This case was initiated by the filing of a Chapter 11 petition by the above Debtor on July 2, 2015.

2. The Maida Law Firm, P.C. makes this its Final Application pursuant to § 330 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 2016 of the Bankruptcy Rules of Procedure for professional services rendered by the Maida Law Firm, P.C. in the representation of the Debtor through the date of this application. The undersigned, as Counsel in this proceeding, was hired by the Debtor to represent him in the filing of plan of reorganization under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Maida Law Firm, P.C. began its employment on June 4, 2015 and continues through the present date.

3. The Maida Law Firm, P.C. has represented the Debtor in matters requiring legal assistance in the administration of this estate. Per the Interim Fee Application, and subsequent order entered 5/27/16, the Maida Law Firm, P.C. has received compensation of $13,402.00 in fees and $2,829.04 for expenses during its employment through April 28, 2016.

4. Pursuant to Rule 2016 of the Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Debtor and Applicant present this Application seeking final compensation and reimbursement of expenses to The Maida Law Firm, P.C. covering the period from April 29, 2016 through the present.

5. The Maida Law Firm, P.C. has rendered substantial legal services to the Debtor. A brief summary of the nature and extent of the services performed by counsel is set forth below:

- a) Various Consultations with Debtor regarding amendments; proof of claims, Monthly Operating Reports, Proposed Plan and Disclosure Statement;

- c) Conferences by phone and in person with Debtor regarding their case and confirmation issues;
- d) Assisted the Debtor in other matters which required the assistance of an attorney;

6. In support of this final application, the Maida Law Firm would demonstrate that the factors to be considered in awarding compensation to professionals for services performed on behalf of the Debtor, as enumerated in the United States Bankruptcy Code and developed in case law, support this request for compensation of the fees in this case. 11 U. S. C. § 330 provides that an allowance of reasonable compensation for the actual, necessary, professional services should be based upon the time, nature, the extent and the value of the services rendered to the estate and the cost of comparable services.

7. The controlling case authority in the Fifth Circuit governing the Court's decision on the compensation sought in this Application is Copper Liquor, Inc. v. Adolph Coors Co., 684 F.2d 1087 (5th Cir. 1982). See Also, In Re: El Paso Refinery, L.P., 257 B.R.809, (Bankr.W.D. Tex. 2000).

Copper Liquor directs the Court to determine the reasonable amount of compensation by considering the nature, the extent, and the value of the professional services as set forth in 11 U.S.C. §330. A discussion and analysis of the factors delineated in the 11 U.S.C. §330 applied to the services provided by the Maida Law Firm, P.C. in this case is set out below:

A.) TIME SPENT ON SUCH SERVICES:

The Maida Law Firm and its employees have rendered an additional 37.70 hours of legal services for the benefit of the Debtor since the approval of the interim fee application. With respect to fees and expenses covered in this final Application, the Applicant has attached an itemized billing statement for fees and expenses being attached as Exhibit "A" and incorporated for all purposes.

C.) WHETHER SERVICES WERE NECESSARY TO ADMINISTRATION, OR BENEFICIAL AT TIME SERVICE WAS RENDERED TOWARD COMPLETION OF CASE:

The Maida Law Firm, P.C. was retained by the Debtor to represent him in view of the complexity of the estate and diversity of claims, creditors and other parties in interest. A high degree of skill was required in rendering the services in this proceeding. The paramount factor that the Court should consider is that the services rendered by The Maida Law Firm, P.C. were beneficial to the Debtor. The Applicant respectfully maintains that such services rendered were beneficial to the Debtor.

D.) WHETHER SERVICES WERE PERFORMED WITHIN A REASONABLE AMOUNT OF TIME COMMENSURATE WITH COMPLEXITY, IMPORTANCE, AND NATURE OF PROBLEM, ISSUE, OR TASK ADDRESSED:

The Applicant respectfully maintains that such services rendered were performed within a reasonable amount of time as detailed on Exhibit "A" and were beneficial to the Debtor. The amounts involved in the subject matter and related matters were substantial and of importance to the Debtor and the Estate.

E.) WHETHER THE COMPENSATION IS REASONABLE, BASED ON CUSTOMARY COMPENSATION CHARGED BY COMPARABLY SKILLED PRACTITIONERS IN CASES OTHER THAN CASES UNDER THIS TITLE:

The fees requested in this application are customary for the degree of skill and expertise required in the performance of the legal services rendered in this case by experienced attorneys and other professionals in the Eastern District of Texas. The Applicant believes the fee charged is fair, reasonable and customary for fees at the time the services were rendered for services of a similar nature in related proceedings or other chapter proceedings involving the complexities and diversities of such a case and is a reasonable, customary and usual fee in the community for fees for legal services rendered by attorneys of similar expertise, experience, and skill. The Applicant has based this Application on an hourly fee based upon and in consideration of the above factors governing allowance of compensation to attorneys as made applicable in this Circuit.

The Attorneys believe that the fees sought are well within the range permitted by this Court as well as other Courts in cases of this type for representation of this nature. The Attorneys believe that the time expended has been worthwhile, necessary and beneficial to this estate, creditors and parties in interest in an effort to maintain an orderly progress of this case and to secure and protect as many assets for the benefit of the estate as possible to achieve a final resolution.
